PHIL SCHEMBRA'S INVENTORY UPDATE PALMETTO DUNES | SHELTER COVE | LEAMINGTON

January 1 - August 31, 2023

We have made history! As of August 31st, the average closing price for homes in Palmetto Dunes and Leamington exceeded $2 million, which represents the highest average closing price EVER for this time of the year. In addition, the average closing prices for condominiums in Palmetto Dunes, Shelter Cove and Leamington was $830,000 — the second highest average in history for this time of the year.

The disparity between supply and demand is a key reason homes and condominiums continue to rise. It's also why this is an opportune moment for sellers to take advantage of appreciation gains — and for buyers to purchase in a rising market.

The nationwide demand for world-class, oceanfront resort property has increased significantly since the pandemic, and our community is one of the major beneficiaries. Buyers are putting much more emphasis on lifestyle and quality of life, something we have in abundance, with amazing amenities and four seasons all in an oceanfront resort. Visitors fall in love with Hilton Head Island, and many want to become a part of it. They are less price-sensitive and are motivated by other factors; most importantly, priceless family enjoyment.

Demand for world-class oceanfront resort property remains strong not only now but in the foreseeable future, despite national trends in high interest rates and fewer sales. Yes, there are fewer sales, but not due to any lack of interest. Instead, sales have dropped because owners are not willing to sell despite historically high prices.

In this market, it is critical for both buyers and sellers to work with a specialist who has in-depth knowledge of Palmetto Dunes, Shelter Cove and Leamington. With my 47 years of record-breaking sales, I know where prices were, where they are now and where they will be headed in the years to come. If you are thinking of selling, reinvesting or would like more information on this market, please call me. It would be my pleasure to help you.
